

Mirror people

Through the looking glass

By ALICE

The Carbondale MIRROR is delighted that area 15 stations are "picking up" our stories and using them here and there, so we're told. The success from of Littery, of what? Joe Pollis, of Carbondale, who's doing an accessibility survey for A11-CAN, a division of Allied Services for the Handicapped, was on WHPV the day after we featured his picture in a recent column, and he was nice enough to drop in at the MIRROR offices and tell us... it makes media work easier and happier when we can all work together. (If you don't know your own form, nobody else will. I think it was Harry James who once said that.)

Our most sincere sympathies to Alice and George Kichura and family, Alice's sister, Jean McLaughlin, Farrell and family of Montrose, and the rest of their family, on the recent death of their father, Mr. George Kichura. Mrs. Kichura, daughter of James, who was always one of that bountiful great boomer... her first husband, Paul McLaughlin, who died in 1960, was a native of Carbondale.

Sorry we skipped right by Yvonne and Tommy Katto's wedding anniversary on Nov. 2 but congratulations anyway. We heard Randy Pozza was up on a ladder putting up a new sign on the Spelling Plaza Ford Shop on Salem Avenue. Fire Chief Bill Burnett, seen riding around with West Side Hose Company's first call on training mission. Ron Terzani of the MICU staff paid a visit to the MIRROR staff last week. Marie Varato giving a cheerful hello to a MIRROR employee at St. Joe's Gift Shop (where you can buy a copy of this newspaper, by the way).

A weekend of Carbondale area single parents... divorced, widowed or separated, who wish to join or find out more about joining a support and social group in the area, both men and women are invited to join with the organization (does will be normally) your kids' ages make a no difference... and whether or not you have custody make no difference either. Let's get together with single parents with problems like yours... especially those folks who belong to the group which met in recent years at the Professional Building... let all invited to a meeting with the National group at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, at the Women's Resource Center, 121 Chamber of Commerce Building, Scranton... call Van Waters at the MIRROR, 282-0766 for details and transportation arrangements. P.S. you don't HAVE to have a problem to join... come and give us your experience on way.

The bunny rabbit

We were enchanted by the little seven-year-old Carbondale girl who asked, "What was that story you were writing about the bunny rabbit?" It took us a moment to realize before we realized what she meant... "Through the Looking Glass." What's black and white and real all over? The CARBONDALE MIRROR, of course! From the Pennsylvania Division for Women's November-December issue of WOMEN "Equality is not when a female function gets promoted to assistant professor. Equality is when a female scholar meets an able male scholar." Frank and Mary Lavin, Dr. R.C. Patel, among others.

It's always great to see youngsters interested in publishing their own school newspaper, and we're delighted to look over a copy of Our Lady of Mount Carmel eighth grade "Inquire" (Philadelphia paper please copy) Editor Joe Pasalone and his staff, and Sister Angela Miller, the advisor, are to be commended for their journalistic efforts. The "Inquire" even has ads from neighborhood merchants and college football scores. We have a feeling that whoever writes the top of the town column for the MIRROR isn't doing it as a respect. We suspect the 10-11 winter news plans because we have so much more space available to us, and we dream so many more names. Just because we know NO! HWG about a magazine.

Goodwill ambassador
Exher (Timmie) Singer, who should be named 1st Valley Cultural Mians Goodwill Ambassador, or whatever, because she's constantly "moo" promoting the arts. A weekend of Carbondale area single parents... divorced, widowed or separated, who wish to join or find out more about joining a support and social group in the area, both men and women are invited to join with the organization (does will be normally) your kids' ages make a no difference... and whether or not you have custody make no difference either. Let's get together with single parents with problems like yours... especially those folks who belong to the group which met in recent years at the Professional Building... let all invited to a meeting with the National group at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, at the Women's Resource Center, 121 Chamber of Commerce Building, Scranton... call Van Waters at the MIRROR, 282-0766 for details and transportation arrangements. P.S. you don't HAVE to have a problem to join... come and give us your experience on way.

MICU celebration

Seen among the guests at the MICU victory bash last Wednesday evening at Marian Hall at St. Joseph's Hospital, too which the hospital dietary department pulled out all the stops, were Paul and Bernice Starnes, of the MIRROR, Harry Cook, Jack Mahoney, Jim McLaughlin, who we spotted a night this time, Jim Frank Hopkins, Tom and Joan Jerny, Edna Singer, Ron Terzani, Tom Molinaro, Dr. Salvatore Pettinato, Fran Barker, John Mahoney, Mike Leck, Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brennan, Pete Smith, St. Joe's executive PM, private nurse Janet Jeffers, Don and Susan Mancuso, Mayor and Mrs. Fred J. Mannino, Dan O'Rourke, Mary and Carol Lange, Pat Collins and son Kevin, Bill Pryle, Howard Grossman, John Shick, Bill and Ada Burnett, Lavin House, Frank and Mary Lavin, Dr. R.C. Patel, among others.

It's always great to see youngsters interested in publishing their own school newspaper, and we're delighted to look over a copy of Our Lady of Mount Carmel eighth grade "Inquire" (Philadelphia paper please copy) Editor Joe Pasalone and his staff, and Sister Angela Miller, the advisor, are to be commended for their journalistic efforts. The "Inquire" even has ads from neighborhood merchants and college football scores. We have a feeling that whoever writes the top of the town column for the MIRROR isn't doing it as a respect. We suspect the 10-11 winter news plans because we have so much more space available to us, and we dream so many more names. Just because we know NO! HWG about a magazine.

Goodwill ambassador
Exher (Timmie) Singer, who should be named 1st Valley Cultural Mians Goodwill Ambassador, or whatever, because she's constantly "moo" promoting the arts. A weekend of Carbondale area single parents... divorced, widowed or separated, who wish to join or find out more about joining a support and social group in the area, both men and women are invited to join with the organization (does will be normally) your kids' ages make a no difference... and whether or not you have custody make no difference either. Let's get together with single parents with problems like yours... especially those folks who belong to the group which met in recent years at the Professional Building... let all invited to a meeting with the National group at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, at the Women's Resource Center, 121 Chamber of Commerce Building, Scranton... call Van Waters at the MIRROR, 282-0766 for details and transportation arrangements. P.S. you don't HAVE to have a problem to join... come and give us your experience on way.

MICU celebration

Seen among the guests at the MICU victory bash last Wednesday evening at Marian Hall at St. Joseph's Hospital, too which the hospital dietary department pulled out all the stops, were Paul and Bernice Starnes, of the MIRROR, Harry Cook, Jack Mahoney, Jim McLaughlin, who we spotted a night this time, Jim Frank Hopkins, Tom and Joan Jerny, Edna Singer, Ron Terzani, Tom Molinaro, Dr. Salvatore Pettinato, Fran Barker, John Mahoney, Mike Leck, Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brennan, Pete Smith, St. Joe's executive PM, private nurse Janet Jeffers, Don and Susan Mancuso, Mayor and Mrs. Fred J. Mannino, Dan O'Rourke, Mary and Carol Lange, Pat Collins and son Kevin, Bill Pryle, Howard Grossman, John Shick, Bill and Ada Burnett, Lavin House, Frank and Mary Lavin, Dr. R.C. Patel, among others.

It's always great to see youngsters interested in publishing their own school newspaper, and we're delighted to look over a copy of Our Lady of Mount Carmel eighth grade "Inquire" (Philadelphia paper please copy) Editor Joe Pasalone and his staff, and Sister Angela Miller, the advisor, are to be commended for their journalistic efforts. The "Inquire" even has ads from neighborhood merchants and college football scores. We have a feeling that whoever writes the top of the town column for the MIRROR isn't doing it as a respect. We suspect the 10-11 winter news plans because we have so much more space available to us, and we dream so many more names. Just because we know NO! HWG about a magazine.

Goodwill ambassador
Exher (Timmie) Singer, who should be named 1st Valley Cultural Mians Goodwill Ambassador, or whatever, because she's constantly "moo" promoting the arts. A weekend of Carbondale area single parents... divorced, widowed or separated, who wish to join or find out more about joining a support and social group in the area, both men and women are invited to join with the organization (does will be normally) your kids' ages make a no difference... and whether or not you have custody make no difference either. Let's get together with single parents with problems like yours... especially those folks who belong to the group which met in recent years at the Professional Building... let all invited to a meeting with the National group at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, at the Women's Resource Center, 121 Chamber of Commerce Building, Scranton... call Van Waters at the MIRROR, 282-0766 for details and transportation arrangements. P.S. you don't HAVE to have a problem to join... come and give us your experience on way.

MICU celebration

Seen among the guests at the MICU victory bash last Wednesday evening at Marian Hall at St. Joseph's Hospital, too which the hospital dietary department pulled out all the stops, were Paul and Bernice Starnes, of the MIRROR, Harry Cook, Jack Mahoney, Jim McLaughlin, who we spotted a night this time, Jim Frank Hopkins, Tom and Joan Jerny, Edna Singer, Ron Terzani, Tom Molinaro, Dr. Salvatore Pettinato, Fran Barker, John Mahoney, Mike Leck, Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brennan, Pete Smith, St. Joe's executive PM, private nurse Janet Jeffers, Don and Susan Mancuso, Mayor and Mrs. Fred J. Mannino, Dan O'Rourke, Mary and Carol Lange, Pat Collins and son Kevin, Bill Pryle, Howard Grossman, John Shick, Bill and Ada Burnett, Lavin House, Frank and Mary Lavin, Dr. R.C. Patel, among others.

It's always great to see youngsters interested in publishing their own school newspaper, and we're delighted to look over a copy of Our Lady of Mount Carmel eighth grade "Inquire" (Philadelphia paper please copy) Editor Joe Pasalone and his staff, and Sister Angela Miller, the advisor, are to be commended for their journalistic efforts. The "Inquire" even has ads from neighborhood merchants and college football scores. We have a feeling that whoever writes the top of the town column for the MIRROR isn't doing it as a respect. We suspect the 10-11 winter news plans because we have so much more space available to us, and we dream so many more names. Just because we know NO! HWG about a magazine.

Goodwill ambassador
Exher (Timmie) Singer, who should be named 1st Valley Cultural Mians Goodwill Ambassador, or whatever, because she's constantly "moo" promoting the arts. A weekend of Carbondale area single parents... divorced, widowed or separated, who wish to join or find out more about joining a support and social group in the area, both men and women are invited to join with the organization (does will be normally) your kids' ages make a no difference... and whether or not you have custody make no difference either. Let's get together with single

Sposito admitted to supreme court

ATTY. JAMES A. SPOSITO

James A. Sposito has been notified by the Pennsylvania State Supreme court that he has been admitted to the bar, and passed the bar examination.

He has been sworn in as practicing attorney before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania as of Nov. 2, 1981.

Attorney Sposito is a graduate of Carbondale area high school, University of Scranton, Maryland College, Straburg School of Law, Straburg, France, and George Mason School of Law, Arlington, Va.

While attending George Mason School of Law, Sposito received an award in Mead Court Competition at the U.S. Court of Customs and Appeals and was the recipient of a scholarship to study international law by the United Nations Forum in Europe.

Attorney Sposito was associated with a law firm in Scranton, Pa., and was a member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Attorney Sposito was formerly employed by N.E.L.U. No. 19. He is a local businessman, and licensed Pennsylvania Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. A member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sposito, 50 Fairview St., Carbondale. He is the father of two children, James Jr., and Angela Sposito.

Mirror reports

City hall reports

Winterizing hydrants

Fire Chief William Burrell and the city's firetruck drivers have been going through an annual ritual the past several weeks. Members of the city's Bureau of Fire have been winterizing fire hydrants in all parts of the city.

The winterizing process includes adding an anti-freeze to the working parts of the hydrant. A city hall source said that some hydrants have also been repaired during the time.

Sources at city hall have been hesitant in listing the locations of the vacant buildings scheduled for demolition since the city has been plagued with several vacant building fires.

It was feared that releasing the addresses of the scheduled-for-demolition buildings would invite arsonists to torch those buildings, endangering neighboring homes.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Still waiting for parts

A handout from a Sunday night late in September knocked out electric power to some parts of the city.

It was feared that releasing the addresses of the scheduled-for-demolition buildings would invite arsonists to torch those buildings, endangering neighboring homes.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Work is stopped

Work on the reconstruction of Gordon Avenue has stopped.

It was feared that releasing the addresses of the scheduled-for-demolition buildings would invite arsonists to torch those buildings, endangering neighboring homes.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Meters up and down

At its meeting in September, city council had requested the city's administration to replace missing parking meters.

It was feared that releasing the addresses of the scheduled-for-demolition buildings would invite arsonists to torch those buildings, endangering neighboring homes.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50 percent of the cost, while the city picks up the remaining 50 percent.

Under this demolition program, the city is handling the clerical work and is charging in 50